SEWERS WILL LOWER LEVEL OF POLLUTION

Expert says beaches will be safer

The pollution level at Altona beach will be lower when Altona is fully sewered, a spokesman for Water Science Laboratories Pty. Ltd. told the Star this week.

Last week a Melbourne newspaper carried a report that the sewage bacteria at Altona and three other beaches — Sandringham, Brighton and St. Kilda — was more than double the internationally accepted safety standards.

The report was based on readings taken by Water Science Laboratories Pty. Ltd., a firm which also acts as consultant to Altona Council.

The sewage bacteria reading at Altona and the other three beaches was 4600 per litre. Scientists regard a count of 2000 per litre as the safety limit.

Questioned by the Star, the spokesman said the readings often varied with the tide and the weather.

"When it is high tide there is more dilution and less concentration of bacteria," he said.

"On the other hand, when there has been a good fall of rain, the rain drains straight into the sea taking the bacteria with it and there is a strong concentration of pollution near shore.

The samples taken by the laboratories were all from waist-deep water.

The spokesman told the Star that in general, Altona beach had a high level of pollution and was often over the internationally accepted standard.

Cr. Harry Weaver told the Star he doubted that Altona beach was any worse than other beaches in the bay. "On the radio at the weekend I heard that conditions were good compared to those at Frankston," he said.

"And we are fortunate to have one of the safest beaches in Melbourne for young children to swim."

DEATH IN QUEEN ST.

A young man was killed in Altona last Friday night when the car he was driving ran out of control in Queen Street and overturned several times, throwing him out of the vehicle. He was Ronald John Croft, aged 19.

Joy for Vee

It's a happy moment for Vee Brooks as she models this cheeky bikini. The swimsuit, styled overseas, is the type of fun wear you will be seeing on our beaches this summer. Roll on those long, hot days!

Record price for land at Seaholme

Two vacant building blocks in Queen Street, Seaholme, were auctioned for record prices of $14,000 and $14,450 at the weekend and Cr. Harry Weaver is concerned that young Altona people will not have the means to buy land locally unless more land is released soon.

Talking to the Star this week, Cr. Weaver, a builder and Board of Works Commissioner for Altona said he believed the prices paid for the land at numbers 10 and 12 Queen Street were the highest paid for building blocks in Altona.

"There is a definite need for council to open more land for housing," he said.

"At the moment about 2500 acres of vacant industrial and rural land — enough area to accommodate 40,000 people is lying idle in the city."

He said: "If the industries are not going to use this land let's create more cheap land otherwise the sons and daughters of average Altona citizens are going to find the cost of land in Altona slipping beyond them."

Cr. Weaver blamed the Board of Works for freezing land in the Altona Meadows and Truganina area.

"Recently Hanover Holdings were knocked back by the Board in their attempt to open that large chunk of land at Truganina," he said.

"I opposed the board's decision on that one and similarly there are 2000 vacant blocks in Altona Meadows and 1750 of them can't be built on because the board won't supply water."

"The board won't supply water until the area is developed but the people cannot develop it without water," he said.

Cr. Weaver said he would raise the matter at Tuesday night's council meeting.

The blocks of land auctioned in Queen Street were normal sized building blocks (51' x 140') and were sold by Farnbach Burnham.

$6,000 for beach clean

Altona will get a beach cleaning grant of $6000 from the State Government in the current financial year, the Minister for Local Government, Mr. Hunt has told the MLC for Melbourne West, Mr. Alex Knight.

Last year, Altona Council was allocated $8000 and spent $6698. Williamstown Council, which last year spent the $2712 allocated to it will receive $3500.

Val's Column

Hello Girls,

Today I am going to tell about color, a few different types of color. Firstly, the whole look of Revlon's magnificent Ambers — a new concept in cosmetic fashion. Get it now, or if you wait until December's Cleo is out, and you see the girl on the cover—I see you then.

Let me tell you about it. The Magnificent Ambers is an all-over one color look. Very soft, mysterious, feminine for eyes, cheeks, lips and nails. Created by similar shades, hues, tones of the same color sweeping over the entire face.

In six new lipstick shades, four nail enamels, and 10 intriguing shades in cheek/eye color creams. This cheek/eye when applied imparts a soft, natural color and feels beautifully light. The face coloring liquid creates a sheer transparent effect — very flattering. Smooth your chosen color over clean, dry eyelids and over make-up base or moisturiser for full effect on your cheeks.

So much for sophisticated make-up! Now, young color—by Natural Wonder! Loads of new shiny eyeshadow crayons. Big new chunky crayons that glide on color, not waxy, lovely and shiny and ever so long-wearing. Experiment with these crayons, girls! Do your own "thing" with them.

Try these as starters — use Big White on the inner lids for an open-eyed look, a very wake-up look.

Big Silver used on the upper lid edge brings the lid forward and thus providing the effect of a bigger eye socket.

Big Yellow under browse for a soft look that is especially effective for evening.

Big Brown under inner corners of brows, either side of nose to slim nose and add eye interest. Big Beige to cover any eyelid discoloration. Big Pink for evenings, candlelight dinners. Use your imagination.

Lastly today, color through Tan Natural. This is a sun care product. After three years research into skin conditions under hot weather conditions Tan Natural realise YOU need more than just a sun screen. Australia's climate is so drying that it is just as important to have constant moisture added day through. Tan Natural have four products — easily chosen by their colors and one of these are for you.

—Bye.

Council offices open this Christmas

Altona's civic offices will be open for business during the Christmas/New Year period.

In previous years the offices closed for 10 days. This year, because of changes in the municipal officers' leave award, a skeleton staff will be retained in the offices on Thursday, December 27 and Friday, December 28.

The libraries and Altona's infant welfare service will also operate on those days.

Group for youth

The Salvation Army has formed a new youth group for young Altona people.

Catering for children aged from seven to 13 the group meets on Thursdays between 7 p.m. and 8 p.m. in the Salvation Army Hall in Civic Parade.

Guitar wizard opens school

One of Australia's most highly qualified guitar teachers will open a school in Altona.

He is Peter Collins, 28, of Railway Street, Altona, and his record reads like the career of a man totally dedicated to improving guitar standards in all fields in Australia.

He started taking lessons at 10, and was teaching by the time he was 16.

By the time he was 19 he was chief guitar instructor for Lou Toppiano and was involved in arranging solo and group television works for IMT, Bandstand, Sound of Music and other shows.

From there he established his own business in Sydney, and it grew to the stage where it eventually employed 13 people.

The store was eventually forced to close and Peter had to give the music game away for a time on doctor's orders.

He soon got back into the swing of things and was travelling from Melbourne to Sydney twice a week up until six weeks ago.

Now, with Allans as their "guitar revolutionist", his results, publications and methods have proved outstandingly successful.

Peter said he was waiting on a reply to an application for a $9000 Government grant to enable him to continue composing and writing.

PRESENTING THE ALTONA BEACH — CLEAN SHOW

Altona Council wants to arrange a press and television coverage of the beachcleaning activities of Altona youth groups.

Each year more than 450 young people give up hours of their leisure time to make the Altona foreshore safe and clean.

Operation Beachclean 1973/74 will commence on Sunday, November 25, at Logan Reserve.

Altona councillors and youth leaders will participate.

Last year Operation

Beachclean was awarded a certificate of commendation in the Jaycees' Better Community Awards.

Altona is believed to have pioneered the project in 1960. Last season 10 youth clubs participated and 452 young people spent time cleaning the beach of litter and broken glass.

As a result the case book of Altona Lifesaving Club reported only three injuries caused by broken glass, compared with 96 cases in 1959.

The amazing drop in the number of casualties brought about by the project is seen as proof of the value of Operation Beachclean.

Despite the increase in population and beachgoers, Altona's beach is safe and cleaner than it was 10 years ago.

A staunch supporter of youth and Operation Beachclean is Altona mayor, Cr. Ray Richards.

Talking to the Star he commended the enthusiasm of the youth groups "in participating in such a vital community interest".

This year the Local Government Department is allocating $6000 to Altona Council for foreshore improvements.

No diving off pier

Moves to instal a slide or diving board at the end of Altona pier have been blocked by the Public Works Department.

Altona council has been informed by the port officer in Victoria, Mr. A. J. Waggle, that permission for this cannot be granted because rule 88 forbids bathing from a public wharf.

Limiting your animals

Altona Council is considering introducing a by-law limiting the number of animals to be kept on a residential property and covering the keeping of poultry and bees.

At a recent general purposes committee meeting the matter was deferred for revision of the draft by-laws and further report.

Shooting licences

Shooters in Altona who have not yet obtained licences for their rifles or shotguns are urged by Altona police to do so immediately.

"The alternative is to hand the rifle or shotgun in at the police station under the three months amnesty granted by the Chief Secretary," a police spokesman told the Star recently.

Top guest

Former Altona High School student Lynda Keane was a guest artist on Channel 7's True Blue Show last week. Lynda resides in Sydney with her entertainer husband Greg Anderson.

North is on the nose

Reporting to Tuesday night's meeting of Altona Council, Senior Health Inspector, Mr. John Russell said a total of eight pollution complaints had been lodged since the previous council meeting.

The four types of pollution complained of were: noise one complaint, odor three, smoke one and deposits three.

They were received in the following order:

- Chemical odor from Altona North area.

- Noise problem from residential property.

- Deposits of household articles in Altona North.

- Chemical odor from Altona North area.

- Spillage from waste vehicle onto roadway in Altona North area.

- Deposits of ash on property in South Kingsville area.

- Smoke emission from plant in Altona North.

- Offensive odors emission from plant in Altona West area.

Pollution complaints are placed on council's environment file and investigated by council's health department and Cr. Doug Grant who holds the environment portfolio.

Following the investigations action is taken by council and industries concerned are alerted to the complaints.

Your rates at work

Altona City engineer, Mr. Ralph Simmons, made the following report on civic works to Tuesday night's meeting of council:

- Clelland Road — Grieve Parade to Pearl Street. Bituminous stabilised crushed rock was spread and consolidated.

- Grieve Parade — drainage: The laying of an underground drain in Grieve Parade just north of Kororoit Creek Road was completed.

- Kororoit Creek Road — duplication: In connection with the construction of divided roadways in Kororoit Creek Road westwards to a point near the western boundary of Dow Chemicals, excavation of the road bed east of Maidstone Street is in progress.

- Intersection of Millers and Blackshaws roads: In connection with proposed improvements to the traffic signals at the intersection of Millers Road and Blackshaws Road, a traffic count was taken on October 31, between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m.

A total 7104 vehicles entered the intersection from the north, 6530 from the south, 3109 from the east and 1758 from the west.

- Intersection of Millers and Kororoit Creek roads: Further to council direction that the question of recent fatal accidents at the intersection of Millers and Kororoit Creek roads be discussed with officers of the Police Department, two officers of the Accident Appreciation Squad discussed ways in which the intersection could be made safer.

It was considered that excessive speed is the cause of most accidents at the intersection.

The police officers said they proposed to recommend to the Road Safety and Traffic Authority that the existing 40 mph zone in Millers Road between points near Stirling Avenue and just south of Kororoit Creek Road and the 40 mph zone in Kororoit Creek Road between points near the Williamstown Technical School and the bend west of Kororoit Creek be made 35 mph zones.

Amphometers could then be set up near the approaches to the intersection and, hopefully, motorists educated to reduce speed in the vicinity.

It is recommended that ROSTA be advised that the council desires the existing 40 mph zones in Millers Road and in Kororoit Creek Road to be altered to 35 mph zones.

- Millers Road — footpath: Levelling of the nature strip adjoining the new concrete path along the east side of Millers Road between Kororoit Creek bridge and Kororoit Creek Road was completed.

- Pier Street — footpath: A concrete slab footpath was provided in front of the new shop on the east side of Pier Street south of Queen Street.

- Grant Reserve; Bituminous stabilised crushed rock was spread and consolidated on the section of the roadway between Civic Parade and the entrance to the council depot.

The spreading of soil on the football oval was completed.

Erection of the eight feet high mesh fencing around the football oval was completed.

- Langshaw Reserve — pavilion: Carpentry work was undertaken in preparation for the fixing of steel deck roofing at the new pavilion.

- W. G. Cresser Reserve — toilet block: Brickwork for the walls of the new toilet block near the boat ramp was completed. A septic tank was installed and the laying of effluent lines is in progress.

- Council properties — sewerage: Connection of the Senior Citizens Welfare Club building to the Board of Works sewerage system was completed; connection of the organisation centre is nearing completion.

- Council properties — maintenance: Painting of the kindergarten at Somers Parade was completed and painting of the adjacent infant welfare centre is in progress.

Tenders: Replacement of Grader, Replacement of street sweeper.

Tenders for the replacement of the above items of plant will be tabled.

Up to their armpits in lost property

If someone's pinched your bike and you haven't reported it; or if you lost your purse while shopping, don't give up all hope yet.

Call in at Altona police station. It's amazing the range of lost or stolen and unclaimed property they are holding.

The range of goods available includes several cycles, all found in the Altona area or recovered when arrests were made.

Then there's a fine range of women's purses, all picked up and handed in by honest citizens in Altona.

One of these contains quite a large amount of money. Police are amazed no inquiry has been made about it.

Most of the others contain smaller amounts and some personal papers but none identifying the owners.

For the handyman, there's a box of tools.

And there's even a taste of the racing game in the range — a stop watch found in an Altona street several weeks ago.

A new play featuring Footscray?

A stage play written by a Footscray-born author with a setting which could quite easily be Footscray, is showing nightly in the Viaduct Theatre, South Yarra.

It is the play A Bunch of Ratbags, from the book by William Dick.

It is described as the comedy and pathos of a young man's life in the 1950s as leader of a back street Melbourne gang.

It had its premier last Friday night, and tomorrow, Thursday, the theatre is putting on a unique open night.

Pay if you enjoy

Visitors are invited to see the show free — and pay on their way out if they are pleased with the performance.

Peter Spurrier, administrator of the Viaduct says his theatre is producing an all-Australian play which will be the first of many if this one proves successful.

He says the play is extremely good.

"Bill Dick was brought up in the area, and the people he is writing about are real.

"We want to make this all-Australian venture a success, so we are holding open house next Thursday night — admission free and if you like pay on the way out."

The music for Ratbags has been written by Don Battye and Peter Pinne whose commercial successes have played at many Australian theatres, including performances at the Adelaide Festival of Arts.

'Authentic touch'

The cast of the play is made up largely of people from South Yarra and Toorak, but a couple come from Footscray "which adds an authentic touch."

The play is rated for mature audiences only — because of the authentically bawdy language used.

The season runs until December 1, and bookings can be made at the Viaduct, 27A Cromwell Road, South Yarra, or phone 24 1937.

ART SHOW THEIR BIRTHDAY PARTY

Williamstown North Church of Christ Women had a birthday party with a difference recently.

It took the form of an art show with an exhibition of 32 paintings by Melbourne artist, Jean Jeffrey.

The theme of the night was that if people obediently dedicate their talents, life could become a most exciting experience with unlimited boundaries.

There was no lack of interest in the pictures and many women seemed thrilled to see paintings of places they were familiar with.

One painting used in her talk to stress the importance of the use of height was one of a bent tree just out of Halls Gap on the way to Dunkeld.

A singing group, 'Glenaires', from Glen Waverley added enjoyment to the evening.

Following her successful North Williamstown exhibition, Mrs Jeffrey is conducting an exhibition at Darrod's Royston Gallery, in Melbourne, until November 30.

Included in the show are portraits of the former moderator of the Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Rhys Miller and another of the Avoca River, at the height of its recent flood.

Mrs Jeffrey will be present on all days of the show and the paintings are for sale.

It's delightful settings like these that make Jean Jeffrey's works so much in demand. Jean is pictured here getting the painting ready for her Darrod's Gallery exhibition which opened yesterday.

Fine night at 'The Mikado'

Overcoming the problem of finding a director, by obtaining the services of Frank Wadds just a few weeks before production date the well-balanced and talented cast of The Mikado, put on a fine night's entertainment on Saturday, October 6.

A chorus of lively and enthusiastically smiling faces is something which is almost peculiar to "Gilbert and Sullivan", and ACYT's chorus was no exception.

Surely the outstanding performance came from John Harris as Ko-Ko.

He gave a talented and controlled portrayal of what must be one of G & S's most loveable characters.

Gail Poole (Yum-Yum), a pretty actress with a voice to match, and Trevor Findlay (Nanki-Poo) were both impressive in achieving colorful and effective characterisations and Miss Poole's delightful antics in "Here's a How-de-do" together with Nanki-Poo and Ko-Ko showed that this young actress has a real flair for comedy.

Grahame Murphy's sets and costumes were beautiful and colorfully designed and musical accompaniment by Jean Osborne (musical director) and Mike Downes highlighted a production of high standard musical comedy, of which local people can be justly proud.

Two cycles go: same place, same times

Two Altona men had their cycles stolen from Gellibrand in the same time period last week.

They are Mr. Christopher Whitlow, a laborer, and Mr. Paul Meller, a student.

Both machines were stolen between 9 p.m. last Monday and 7.30 a.m. Tuesday.

SOCCER CLUB MAY DISBAND

By LAURIE SCHWAB

Keilor City soccer club may disband or amalgamate.

This shock news was circulated to all club members last week.

An official letter to members said that unless "improved interest" was shown at the annual general meeting at 2.30 p.m. on Sunday, November 18, in the clubrooms, there would be no option but to disband Keilor City or merge with another club. The letter was prompted by a pitiful attendance on November 4, the original date of the annual meeting. In a desperate plea, the letter says that if members have any feelings towards their club, they will be sure to attend on November 18.

If Keilor City is wiped out, it would be a tragedy. One of the finest teams in the First Division, Keilor has narrowly missed promotion to State League on a number of occasions. What has happened? It is almost inconceivable to imagine that the club's support is so low, when you think back to the good crowds and packed social functions of a few years ago.

If Keilor folds — and let us hope it will not happen — it will be an indictment not only of apathetic club members but also of the huge soccer public of St. Albans, where the club is based. Clubs mentioned in rumors of amalgamation include Polonia, Austria, Ajax and St. Albans.

West German team FC Paderborn, which will play in Melbourne in January.

SC Paderborn of West Germany's top amateur league will play against Keilor Austria on January 13 at a venue to be named.

While in Melbourne, Paderborn will also meet Richmond which will be featuring guest players.

The Germans are seeking a third match in Victoria on January 16 — a Wednesday.

The opponent may be a State League club or even an outfit from the country. In fact, Paderborn will play anywhere in the State.

Its match fee is a very reasonable $500.

Any club wishing to meet Paderborn should phone Mr. Fritz Schwab, on 396 2223.

On its way to Australia, Paderborn will play in India, Thailand, Singapore, Malaysia and Indonesia.

On past tours, Paderborn has visited the U.S. four times, Africa three times and has played all over Europe against teams including Lefski Sofia and Slavia Sofia of Bulgaria and Lokomotiv Kiev and Lokomotiv Moscow of the Soviet Union.

The German team features two African players who are studying in Germany — one from Ghana and the other from the Ivory Coast.

In Australia, Paderborn will also play in Sydney and against a Canberra select XI.

Fourteen seven-minute matches will be played on this first of three competition sessions at the YMCA.

The matches will be shown in parcels of two on the GTV-9 Sunday sports show, starting on November 18.

The teams taking part are: Footscray J.U.S.T., George Cross, Hellas, Hakoah, Alexander, Juventus, Wilhelmmina and Frankston.

In practice matches over the past two weeks, the most impressive teams have been Juventus and Wilhelmmina.

Players to show early form have been Dino De Marchi of Juventus, Gary Cole of Wilhelmmina and Steve Rujewic of J.U.S.T.

Awards will be made to the best player and top scorer over the 28 matches before the finals.

In addition, the best player of each lot of two televised matches will also receive an award.

There will be casting votes for the best players, and I hope to see you there as well.

Commentators are Hakoah goalkeeper Jack Reilly and GTV-9 personality Maurie Kirby.

Tonight's matches: Wilhelmmina v. Juventus, J.U.S.T. v. Hellas, Frankston v. Alexander, Hakoah v. George Cross, J.U.S.T. v. Frankston, Hellas v. George Cross, Wilhelmmina v. Hakoah, Alexander v.

Juventus, George Cross v. J.U.S.T., Juventus v. Frankston, Wilhelmmina v. Alexander, Hakoah v. Hellas, Wilhelmmina v. Frankston, Hakoah v. J.U.S.T.

Admission is only 80 cents.

Gamanski coach

Catholic priest, Father Richard Gamanski, 34, has been appointed senior coach of Polonia-Maribyrnong, to replace Ian Petherick who has resigned.

Gamanski was coach of the reserves this year.

Other office-bearers are: Karol Mierzwa, vice-president; Tom Ostrowski, secretary; Z. Dabkowski, treasurer; M. Bialowiejski, team manager.

Bialowiejski played for Cracovia in Poland before the war and has a lot of coaching experience.

Western Cup

Albion Rovers beat itself on Sunday to win the Western Suburbs Cup.

The result in the final was: Albion Rovers "A" 3, Albion Rovers "B" 1.

Results of semi-finals: Albion Rovers "B" 2, Australia 1; Slavia 0, Albion Rovers "A" 0. (Albion won on penalty kicks 4-1).

The third annual Mercedes-Benz Concours d'Elegance and State rally will be held by the Mercedes-Benz Club (Vic.) at the Lilydale Oval on Sunday, November 25. Cars will start to arrive from 10 a.m. More than 150 M-B club cars are expected to be on display.

There are classes for all models of Mercedes-Benz in the Concours d'Elegance section, where cars are judged for originality, cleanliness, and general condition.

This is only one part of the day's proceedings, however, since members take this opportunity to come from all parts of Victoria and add their cars to the display.

As can be imagined, many rare and interesting models are to be seen.

All Mercedes owners and enthusiasts are welcome, and are invited to come along and add their cars to this glittering display.

Further details are available from John Davies — 544 3255 Bus. or John Fleming — 277 1015 AH.

The photograph shows one of the various models that will be on display.

The Mercedes-Benz Club is active in all States of Australia, and the Victorian club has over 200 members.

Altona teams notch clean sweep

All five Altona Cricket Club teams had wins in the third round of matches.

The First Eleven had an easy win over Spotswood after dismissing them for 49 in the first innings.

Altona set about scoring quick runs after a first innings lead of 45 — and gained the points.

Forrester and Courtot opened the innings and, with the score at 11, Forrester was dismissed in trying to force runs. Duggan joined Courtot and attacked with a shot to the boundary from his first ball.

He put on a quick 23 before being caught.

Jenkins came to the crease and he and Courtot took the score into the 50s when Courtot was stumped.

Palton and Shaw were the two batsmen to be dismissed in taking the score to 5/107 giving Altona a lead of 151 with 110 minutes of play left to dismiss Spotswood for the second time.

Tight bowling by Altona made it apparent that

Spotswood had no chance of winning and could only try and keep their wickets intact.

Dare, Clayton, Calaz and Shaw put Altona into the good position of having Spotswood at 5/43 in their second innings with 12 overs to go before stumps.

However, with the batsmen not attempting to score on the good wicket, Altona had to be content with first innings points and Spotswood at 7/84 at stumps.

Three won it on their own

Williamstown, with only three wickets down for 124, easily defeated Ivanhoe on Cup Day.

The Ivanhoe wicket suited Graeme Coulston and he had the two openers both out for a total of six.

The wickets continued to fall with good bowling and fielding and, after only 38 overs, Ivanhoe were 8/115.

Williamstown went to the crease with openers Kev Tweedly and Barry McConnell adding 26 before Tweedly was caught.

Bert Park joined McConnell and they batted along to 53 before McConnell was caught out after scoring 27.

Hewet joined Park in what was to be the winning partnership and they past the necessary 115 in the 30th over.

Williamstown's bowling figures were Horsburgh 0/16, Coulston 5/20, Joslin 0/31, Fowler 3/35, McConnell 0/8.

The batting figures came from Tweedly 15, McConnell 27, Park 42, Hewet 30, Dean 2, sundries 8.

The seconds went down by four runs for a total of 115, after 38 overs, despite a good partnership by Shaw and Dean.

Ivanhoe went after the runs, but struck a snag in Ian McLeod who took 5/25 off 11 overs.

Norm Shaw took 2/33 off 11 overs but the visitors scratched along to get the necessary runs to end with 9/119.

'SOCIAL BENEFITS SECONDARY'

"I didn't appear, but I wanted to defend the case," a young man told Mr. J. Guggan SM in Williamstown Court.

Michael Cahill, of no fixed address, appeared before Mr. J. Duggan SM appealing against a previous penalty of $150 over smoking and possessing Indian hemp.

The case was dismissed. Cahill told the court, "I was engaged on other things in the way of a beneficiary concert and forgot about the court hearing until I was told it was on at about 11.30 a.m."

Cahill said a female friend of his rang him by that time and told him his case was being heard.

He said he raced to the courthouse and arranged with the clerk to pay the fines imposed but also asked for his case to be presented again.

Under cross examination, Cahill admitted he knew his case was on.

In dismissing the application for the rehearing, Mr. Duggan said he was satisfied that Cahill knew the date of the initial court hearing and that social benefits were a secondary matter.

Wild dog survey

A test to evaluate high performance radial tyres under extreme outback conditions has been successfully completed by Goodyear Australia.

Using a Ford Falcon V8 2-door sedan shod with ER70H14 Goodyear grand rally radial tyres, Goodyear public affairs manager, Mr. Colin Davis, made a 2500 miles survey of the wild dog fence in NSW, South Australia and Queensland.

The tyres finished unmarked.

Mr. Davis said the tyre is rated at a high speed performance level of 130 mph.

Mr. Davis said the unique tyre is, pound for pound, stronger than steel.

WAGE COSTS THREATEN HOSPITAL

Spiralling salary and wage increases are threatening further inroads into the operating costs of the Western General Hospital.

The hospital manager, Mr. Ted France, said it could mean a higher deficit if the State Treasury did not foot the bill, but it was not too soon to tell.

Asked if it would mean drastic cuts in staff or the closing of some hospital beds, he said he hoped the question would not arise.

He also gave the same answer on whether he thought the Government would allow the situation to go that far.

He said that recent pay grants to hospital employees had been "remarkable" compared to those over the past 18 months.

Claims were continually being made, and further were expected to go before State Wages Boards.

He doubted whether the Government-raised hospital bed charges operative from September 1, would go towards meeting any of these pay increases.

They would mostly be absorbed in the day to day operating costs, he added. Last year salaries and wages accounted for 74 cents in every dollar of hospital expenses.

Although the full impact of the recent pay grants would not be known until next month, Mr. France believed they would increase the proportion of money paid out to staff from all hospital finances.

Mr. France said that the Hospital and Charities Commission at times during the year asked hospitals for a revised budget. It could recommend further grants to hospitals from the Treasury, to meet their end-of-year costs.

Mr. France said his hospital had sent along its submissions for more money to take it through to the end of the financial year.

He would probably know how much was to be granted by next month.

The hospital last year had a deficit of $28,002, but he was unable to say at this stage what effects the pay increases would have on next year's balance.

Children's T.V. Under Fire

A group calling themselves THE AUSTRALIAN CHILDREN'S TELEVISION ACTION COMMITTEE is taking a serious look at what has been described "TV's wasteland for children". The Committee has just conducted a survey examining children's TV viewing which finds the stations wanting. This Thursday, "The Age" TV/Radio Guide reports on the findings of the survey in which people taking part were encouraged to send protest cards to TV stations whenever a programme was particularly "batty". In handy 12-page liftout form "The Age" TV/Radio guide details all the week's viewing and listening highlights. CRICKETERS ON TOP OF THE WORLD

Williamstown's first eleven cricket side is really wagging its tail after knocking up its fourth successive win for the season to be in its best position for years.

A fighting effort by tail-enders, John Fowler and Geoff Horsburgh, brought up the necessary runs to pass Box Hill's total of 138.

Williamstown resumed at 2/23 but it wasn't long before Barry Hewet lost his wicket without scoring. Things looked even bleaker when Bert Park lost his wicket when the score was 36. Dyson and Joslin took the score to 63 before Dyson was caught.

Joslin batted on for 65 minutes before being trapped lbw by Cullen for 32.

Coulston was the seventh batsman out and Williamstown still needed 45 runs. Then Fowler joined Dean but Cullen bowled Dean for 15 and the score was still only 101.

Horsburgh came in and the two pushed the score along fast until "Hors" skied one to Tierney and the ninth fell at 152.

Ferris joined Fowler and showed contempt for the attack by belting the ball over the Morris Street fence.

Ferris was caught for one and Williamstown were all out for 166.

Box Hill batted for the second time and made 4/84 by stumps.

Final scores were Box Hill, 1st innings 138.

The Thirds have a bye for the next two weeks. Williamstown meet Ormond at home on Saturday.

Fifteen-year-old Harry Hart put in a grand bowl-

The "champagne event", the club singles championship, will begin early next month. Defending champion, Ron (Tiny) Douglas (pictured), will be trying hard to make it two in a row. Unlike in other sports, it is not very often that a bowler is able to be club champion in consecutive years.

Titles at Altona

Whatever sport one plays, there always has to be a champion.

Bowling is no exception and each year bowlers compete against each other on a club, State and national level.

Club competitions are underway at the Altona Bowling Club, with matches played in the President's Handicap, the Consistency (100up) and the Club Pairs.

North scored 83 and 3/97 dec. to Preston's 59 and 89.
